For the “best selection of hip, contemporary greeting cards” in Park Slope and “cool weird stuff” ranging from Frida Kahlo plastic totes to whimsical nightlights that make “fun gifts”, skip over to this but-tercup-colored Fifth Avenue nook with a tongue-in-cheek “American mom-and-pop vibe” that hints at the owners’ “sense of humor”; patrons purr there’s “something for every occasion” here, including announcements and notes custom-made from your photos.
